

David Brown, Chief of Police

450 E. LATHAM AVENUE • HEMET, CALIFORNIA • 92543
Press Release

Date: August 11, 2012

Release Date : August 11, 2011

Contact: Lt, Dickson, 951-765-2418

Prepared by: Cpl. Douglas

On August 11, 2012, at about 1230 P.M., Hemet Police Officers conducted a probation search at a residence located in the 1400 block of Date St. in the City of Hemet. This was in response to the department having received several citizen complaints of suspected drug related activity occurring. As a result of the search, Officer's recovered an unregistered assault rifle, several high capacity magazines, ammunition for the rifle, and controlled substances.

Hemet resident Greg Macias 29 years, was arrested for unlawful possession of a firearm and controlled substances, possession of a controlled substance for sale, possession of an assault weapon, felon in possession of a firearm, felon in possession of ammunition, possession of high capacity magazines, possession of a firearm in violation of probation conditions, criminal storage of a firearm, and violation of probation. Greg was held at Southwest Detention Facility.